

Seed of a Kiss

Lyrics by Dietrich Koch

This song was waiting just for you to be sung for,
all that time
it was made for you.
Took a while till I met you, you walked by
and I wouldn't let you go,
'cause the moment seemed so right, t'was the moment you inspired the lyrics to this melody.

Before we met I played this song with a feeling that the day will come for me to find the one I would make this dedication to the source of inspiration to these words.
lyrics reflecting the love, warmth and tenderness thereof all that time had sung this melody.

What is a song without noone whom you could dedicate a poem to and say:
"My love, this song is yours, just like me!"?

Now that I've found you it seems right to keep singing this song
opening up my heart telling why
I am clinging to the idea that this tune was just the seed of a kiss that I would give of the life and love we live in a future grown reality.
