

Welcome

Welcome to this crazy world
A carousel ride that's waiting for you
It's on a stage with all the music
A special time can now begin

I see a rising star
So filled with joy
In melodies that I hear
As you go dancing through this life
Just take my hand
I'll guide you gently
I will be there for all the turns you must take

Chorus
Sometimes life's not as light as a bossa-nova
You may not always be singing the same song,
But you'll have to go on
Remember be very strong
On dark days when sometimes things are spinning around,
In your heart look for the beauty inside
Where it rests and
I'll always be there for you.

Welcome to this silly world
Maybe one day you'll make some sense of it too
It's like a stage with so much music
So use the time as best you can

You'll see a rising star
So filled with joy
In melodies that you hear
As you go dancing through this life
Open your eyes
To guide them gently
And be there for all the turns they must take
